On Saturday, April 28th
I will go to the Loew's Theatre Jersey to see
Arch Contemporary Ballet perform.

The Loew's Theatre
Jersey is located at 54 Journal Square
Plaza in Jersey City,
New Jersey.

Doors will open at 11:30 am on the day of the performance. I will go through the door and find the stair or elevator. I may have to stand in line. If I stand in line I will stay with [inset name/s] and try to be quiet.

I will show my ticket to the person at the door. This person is called an usher.

I will walk through the lobby when I arrive. It is very big with many colors like red and gold.

If I feel afraid, I can hold [insert name/s] hand, squeeze a fidget or take five deep breaths.

I will walk through the doors get to my seat. The usher will give us a Program. A program is a piece of paper with the dancer's names. I can look at the Program with [Insert name/s].

The theatre is very big with red chairs. [Insert name/s] will tell us where we have to sit. It is not a choice.

During the show, the theatre will get dark and quiet. I will try to be quiet during the show so I can hear everything.

I will see dancers dancing on the stage. They will be dancing very fast sometimes and will lift each other very high.

If I feel scared, I can cover my ears, squeeze a fidget, hold [insert name/s].

After the music and dance the lights will become darker and people will clap.

Clapping tells the dancers and musicians you like their dance.

The dancers will perform 3 dances so we will get to clap 3 different times!

After the show is over we'll go out of the theatre into the lobby to meet the dancers.

I am so excited to see the ballet and hear the music!
